Ben Johnson reported to me for nearly 5 years at Eli Lilly and Company. During this time I've had the privilege of watching Ben grow into a highly respected sales leader. He is a leader of the highest honesty,integrity and trustworthiness. Ben is an exceptional motivator and team player who brings out the very best in his direct reports and peers. Ben has a unique ability think broadly and strategically while at the same time he comfortable in the details of execution. He was a highly sought after mentor by those more junior in the organization as well as his peers. I enthusiastically recommend Ben Johnson as a highly effective leader.
